1 your work as an expert or PR professional or 2 a citizen that's aware?

3 A. A citizen. I follow the news.
4 I've always been -- you know, I was a
5 journalist for eight or nine years. But, I
6 mean, I've always had a curiosity of what's 7 going on in the world. So I read news,
8 politics, sports, business. I don't look at 9 the comics, but I look at about everything
10 else.

11 Q. When you say you were a journalist
12 for eight or nine years, where was that?

13 A. It started junior high. I started
14 my junior high newspaper in my school. I 15 was one of two people that formed the 16 newspaper in the school, and then I was a 17 journalist all through four years of 18 college, three years of high school, four 19 years of college, junior high. Actually I 20 had two, three, five, nine years of being on 21 school newspapers. It's journalism.

22 I mean, I was writing articles,
23 interviewing people. It wasn't paid
24 professional journalism, but it was still 25 journalism. And of course I had that period
